Mark Strong, also known as Strizzzy or Mr. Everywhere, is the voice behind the Toronto Argonauts and the Toronto Raptors home games as an in-stadium host. Mark is also the co-host of NBA XL, a show where he interviews players from a basketball culture perspective. On G98.7FM Radio, the only Black-owned Canadian radio station that caters to the Caribbean and African communities, Mark co-hosts the Morning show where he wakes up the city and entertains them with music, interviews, and information.

For the last 17 years, Mark has lent his voice to The Juno Awards, Canada's premier music awards program. Mark has also voiced Canada's Walk of Fame and the Canadian Screen Actors Awards.

Mark's public career started from humble beginnings when he joined the talent pool of Fresh Arts, an organization that helps build the talent of several artists in the city.

Most recently, Mark delivered an epic TEDx talk, A Voice for the City, at Centennial College, Toronto. He recounted when his voice made a difference while the pandemic threatened to diminish his voice when all sporting events were cancelled. Even in the silence of the pandemic, Mark found his audience and his voice.

A firm believer in giving back to society, Mark has teamed up with Canadian rapper, Kardinal Offishal, to support local restaurants and small businesses on Instagram. Mark is also the community ambassador for Penny Appeal Canada. He supports their Back to School campaign that provides 3000 students across Ontario with essential school supplies and a backpack to help alleviate the financial burden for families. Additionally, the Cold Days Warm Hearts campaign provides warm winter meals and winter care kits worldwide to ensure no family gets left out during the winter and has the appropriate winter gear and warm meals to get through the season.
