Joanne Dominico is a Learning Strategist and Academic Success Coach on a mission to help people to lead a Learning Lifestyle. Joanne helps educators, parents, and students of all ages master techniques for more holistic wellbeing and more efficient and effective learning. With over 20 years of experience working in diverse educational environments in the Greater Toronto Area, USA, and Bermuda, the self-proclaimed “Study Skills Ninja” now lends her expertise to Centennial College located in Toronto, Canada.

Through her personal practice, “Study with Joanne” she offers 1:1 consulting and group workshops to organizations, parents and students seeking to enhance productivity and learning capabilities inside and outside of the classroom. With a TEDx Talk under her belt, Joanne is proven to be an engaging and dynamic public speaker. She speaks to research that confirms the correlation between learning and overall wellness while highlighting the many ways taking care of yourself can help students to be more resilient academically and overall in life.

Yearly, Joanne delivers 100+ workshops and keynotes and has been featured on several major media outlets where she shares helpful tips on topics such as online learning, homeschooling success, time management, test preparation, and more. As someone who struggled to grasp learning material in school, Joanne finds true joy in serving this generation by being the person she needed when she was younger.
